Taylor Confirms Promise Of Work On Road South Of Lac La Biche

LAC LA BICHE — At the annual meeting of the Highway 36 Association, the guest speaker, the Honorable Gordon Taylor, minister of highways, confirmed hopes that work would be concentrated on the road south of Lac la Biche to Highway 28. Clearing of brush preparatory to construction will take place under the winter works program this year and construction will be initiated in 1961 from the south end of the completed portion of the highway southerly and from Highway 28 northerly.

The minister also stated that there was good reason to suppose that in due course this portion would form one of the northern links of Highway 36, but that it was not practical to so designate it at this time. The minister pointed out that under the present category of road classification it was entitled to an increased financial expenditure which it could not enjoy as a main highway. Under the latter category it could not be considered as a winter works project.

There is every indication that the Lac la Biche to Highway 28 link will be completed during 1961. The Highway 36 Association in session passed resolutions commending the minister of highways on the actions of his department in regard the Red Deer River and improvements to Highway 36 during 1960. Attention to other needful portions was urged in a second resolution.

Highway 36 Association re-elected president Nick Taylor of Viking and the past secretary-treasurer. Vice-president - elect and representative of the northern end of Highway 36 Association is Michael Maccagno MLA, Lac la Biche. Three vice-presidents representing northern, central and southern regions of the association were also elected Michael Maccagno of Lac la Biche, A. A. Hutton of Hanna and Harvey Blayney of Vauxhall. Secretary - treasurer is Edward Gordon of Brooks.

Highway 36 is an additional south projected highway to complement Highways 2, 24, 23 and 21. Hopes are held that due to the length of coverage it offers that is has a future as one oof the major highways of Alberta.

HARLAND STEELE, Toronto architect, was elected president of the Royal Architectural Institute for a two-year term at its 53rd annual assembly in Winnipeg. Election followed report by team of architects that suburbs of Canadian cities are being filled with monotonous houses like "strawberry boxes."

One-Half Flood Control Cost To Be Assumed By Provincial Government

LAC LA BICHE—Councillors Vincent, Tkachuk, McMillan, Shanks and James Hamar, as well as Mayor Maccagno and Secretary Creighton, were present at the regular meeting of town council, Oct. 25.

Refunds of a portion of gas application permit receipts were authorized to 71 consumers who are now hooked up and using gas. The total amounts involved were $930 going to domestic consumers and $90 to commercial consumers. A deposit of $10 is held by the town for each domestic consumer and $15 for each commercial consumer.

A motion was passed authorizing the town to enter into an agreement with the minister of agriculture, whereby the provincial government will assume one half the cost of flood control work which has been done at the water intake station and the sewage disposal station of the town.

The provincial recreation grant came up for discussion and it was agreed that the town should go ahead with plans for a second open air skating rink, which is to be located in the west end of town. It is understood that the new rink will be used chiefly for hockey, allowing the old rink in the central part of town to be used more by the smaller children. Some further expenditures are to be made on the Memorial Hall to provide a better sysem of lighting, stage curtains and a ventilating system.

Letters were read showing that the price to be paid by he town for the gas transmission line from Sage Gas wells to the town is still under consideration by the minister of mines and minerals. Counsel for the town and for Northland Utilities Co. are going into the matter in great detail, so that whatever figure is arrived at in the end should be close to the right mark.

Home Town Huskies Defeat Athabasca

LAC LA BICHE — On Thursday, October 27, the Lac la Biche Huskies travelled to Athabasca to play the Athabasca football team.

The game opened with Athabasca showing great power along the ground. In four plays, Athabasca scored their major score. Elkow scored on a fine run. This man gave the Huskies plenty of trouble all afternoon. The convert was no good.

Halfway through the second quarter the Lac la Biche boys began clicking. Stewart started things rolling with a terrific 70 yard run from his own five yard line. Then Franchuk hit Bereza in the end zone with a 35 yard strike. Bereza split the uprights on the convert, making the score read 7-6 in favor of the Huskies.

On the last play of the first half Gagnon punted into the end zone for a single. Gagnon punted consistently throughout the game. Bereza's kick-off attempts were nothing to sneeze at either, as he averaged 68 yards a kick.

Throughout the second half both teams waged a tough defensive battle. For added excitement, Gagnon recovered his own punt which pushed Athabasca deep into their own zone. On the second last play of the game, Andre Langevin, a two-way left guard, charged in to nail Elkow for a safety touch. Thus, the game ended with the score reading 10-6 in favor of the Lac la Biche Huskies.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

Excellent officiating.

Clean, but tough play by both teams. A good example of good sportsmanship.

A fine display by the Athabasca and Lac la Biche cheerleaders.

BE AWARE

If there is one quality more than another that marks maturity, it is the quality of awareness. You will, when you are on the lookout for it, sense the moment when your advice and counsel would be fitting and useful; you will be aware, too, of the times when the weight of your years' experience would be a strain on good relations.

G. Zalewsky Awarded Scholarship At Home & School Association Meet

The first meeting of the Hylo Home and School Association for this term was held on Thursday, Oct. 27, in the Hylo School.

The annual scholarship of $15 was awarded this year to Gloria Zalewsky who obtained the highest standing in Grade 9. Gloria had four H's and 4 A's, which is a good standing when one considers the fact that she skipped Grade 7. It may be noted also that after two months in Grade one she passed to Grade two, making her two years ahead in her classes.

Mrs. O. Meardi, president, acknowledged her pleasure in presenting the scholarship to Gloria on behalf of the Hylo Home and School Association. Mrs. Meardi stated that this is the most worthwhile cause undertaken by the H.S.A. She wished Gloria every success in attaining her goal in education and was certain that Gloria could do it if she continues to make as good progress in the future as she has done in the past. "With good motivation, intelligence, and perseverance on the student's part, and help and encouragement of the parents, it should be possible for most students to make a success of their education," she added.

In her address Gloria Zalewsky thanked the H.S.A. for making this scholarship possible, for it helps encourage the students to try to do better. She expressed her thanks to her former teachers for their guidance through the years and especially to Mr. Sashka for his advice and patience through the difficulties in Grade 9. She also said that the encouragement from her parents helped a great deal. Although she did not know what use she would make of the scholarship, she assured the Home and School that she would certainly put it to good use.

Elections will take place at the next meeting. At present Mrs. O. Meardi is president; Mrs. E. Keehn, vice-president; Mrs. J. Meardi, secretary, and William Sachko, treasurer.

Richard Meardi is fund raising convener; Mrs. S. Lozinski, program planning convener, and Mrs. N. Zalewsky, news convener.

The Library committee consists of Mrs. O. Meardi, William Sachko, Mrs. E. Keehn and Mrs. S. Lozinski. Lunch committee is Mrs. E. Keehn and Mrs. C. Meardi.

Members were signed up and the fee is $1.00. At the 1959 convention a resolution was passed asking the executive to make a study of future needs of the Federation and to propose a fee which would cover expenses. This was done and all associations were notified in February.

In April a second brief was sent out proposing a $1.00 fee. In June, the budget which upheld the dollar per capita, was approved by the large majority of 701 to 76. Details of this may be found in the September-October, 1960 Alberta Home and School news which was distributed at the meeting.

Another interesting article in the Alberta Home and School News is "Whose Responsibility Now". Responsibility of men in the home, school and community is also good.

Correspondence was attended to and discussion took place in regard to fund-raising, library books, skating rink and recreation nights with the first one to be held on Saturday, Nov. 12, at 8:00 p.m. in the Hylo School. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Keehn and Mr. and Mrs. E. McEachern will be the first ones to supervise.

Coffee and cookies concluded the meeting.

Grassland

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garnier attended the Bluda wedding and stayed at the home of Mrs. Alphonse Garnier for the weekend.

The sympathy of the district is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ilnicki in the loss of their baby son.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Corse are staying at the Walter Corse home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sakulich are visiting at the Leshchyshyn home.

Two weddings of interest to the community took place recently. On marriage to Miss Olivia Shandro Oct. 21 Mr. Rustyk was united in and on Oct. 28, Mr. Mike Bluda was married to Miss Annie Loposhinski.

Ted Leshchyshyn has returned home after working in the Peace River district during the summer.

Mrs. Diel and infant son arrived recently from Denver, Colo. Mr. Diel is on the staff at Grassland School.

Mental vacations are more necessary than physical rest.

Promotion System To Be Feature Of Lac La Biche Citizens' Band

The Lac la Biche Citizens' band held its annual business meeting after a short practice the evening of Oct. 27. Officers installed for the coming year were as follows: president, Leo Gargus; vice-president, Jack Olstad; bandmaster, F. D. Creighton; secretary, Miss Lynne Breau; treasurer, Miss Olga Mischuk; librarian, Miss Joanne Hamar.

Various questions were discussed such as how to remedy the discipline problem, how to get better results from the time spent at practices, etc. The bandmaster outlined a system of promotion whereby each player wlil be given a certain chair according to his or her ability, with the players being given an opportunity to challenge the position of the one immediately above them every three months. A test will be conducted to prove whether the challenger is more competent and, if so, he moves up to the next chair. This system is used successfully in some of the well established school bands. Mr. Creighton also stressed the need of every bandsman being loyal to the band as a whole, and making the band something which would command the pride and respect of the town.

Hylo Store Sold By Geert Brouwer

HYLO — Geert Brouwer, who bought the General Store from Stanley Grandish last August, has sold it, with ownership of the buildings going back to the former owner.

Geert Brouwer moved to Edmonton on Nov. 1 where he will be manager of a groceteria at 9922 - 101 Street.

A sale was held on all stock and the remaining items were moved, so the Hylo General Store will be closed.

Stanley Grandish, who is now in the real estate business, is in the district and has the buildings up for sale.

Denise Bourassa & Leonard Blasius Seal Wedding Vows With Two Rings

LAC LA BICHE — St. Catherine's Roman Catholic Church was the scene of a pretty fall wedding, Oct. 12, when Miss Denise Bourassa exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Leonard Blasius.

Rev. Father Veil performed the double-ring ceremony for the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bourassa of Lac la Biche and the youngest son of Mrs. Alice Blasius of Castor.

Mrs. M. Maccagno was organist.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was gowned in a floor-length model of white silk, styled with a fitted bodice and lily point sleeves. The square neckline was trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a dainty crown of seed pearls and sequins.

Her jewelry consisted of a rhinestone neckline and earrings, a gift of the groom. Her cascade bouquet was of red roses.

Preceding the bride up the aisle were three attendents. The groom's sister, Miss Rosemarie Blasius of Edmonton, was maid-of-honor and brides-maids were Miss Lucille L'Heureux and Miss Margaret Michaud of Lac la Biche.

They wore identical dresses of yellow net over satin in three-quarter length, styled with bouffant skirts. Their feather bandeau were in white and they carried colonial bouquets of yellow and white flowers.

Mr. Emil Bosse, nephew of the bride, Mr. Bernard Blasius, brother of the groom, and Mr. Paul Bourassa, cousin of the bride, attended the groom. Mr. Lucien Bourassa, brother of the bride, was usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs Bourassa chose a navy blue suit with white accessories and a white rose en corsage.

The groom's mother also wore a navy blue suit with powder blue hat and accessories and white rose corsage.

Some 120 guests attended a reception in the Memorial Hall where Dr. Bouvier proposed a toast to the bride. Mr. J. Booker read a telegram from the bride's Aunt Laura of Cambell River, B.C.

Music for the dance was supplied by Turgeon's Orchestra.

For travelling the bride changed to a plaid suit with matching hat Following a wedding trip to Montana and other points in the Western United States and British Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Blasius will make their home in Lac la Biche.

Among the guests from out of town who attended the wedding were; Mrs. Alice Blasius and son Bernard of Castor; Adelore Bosse, Stony Mountain Radar Base; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Rhodes, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Courchesne Fort Saskatchewan; Mrs. Kaye Wimmer, Castor; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Fulkerth and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Bloomhagen of Edmonton.

THE Homemaker

By BERTHA M. McCUTCHEON

Last week we gave you some information on the food value and the advantages of serving Canada's favorite fruit—apples. Here are some further suggestions and some apple recipes:

B. McCutcheon

Serve Apples in Salads: Combine equal amounts of chopped unpeeled red or green apple and . . . cabbage, carrots or celery; cherries, peaches, pears or grapes, or serve apples with pork, veal, ham, chicken or turkey; serve with lobster, tuna, salmon or chicken haddie; cottage or cream cheese.

All salad ingredients should be well chilled. Most apples darken quickly when cut. Avoid this by cutting at the last minute or immediately mixing with fruit juice or dressing.

One of many easy to make Apple Salads—2 cups chopped unpeeled red apple; 2 cups shredded cabbage; ½ cup raisins. Moisten with French dressing to which crumbled cheese has been added. Toss lightly and serve on crisp lettuce.

Serve apples with meats.

TANGY APPLE HALVES

3 medium sized tart apples
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons molasses
¼ cup tomato catsup
Few grains salt

Wash apples, do not peel. Cut in half crosswise and scoop out core to form hollow. Place halves, cut side up, in a shallow baking pan. Blend together sugar, molasses, catsup and salt. Spoon mixture over apples. Bake in a moderate oven 350° F. until tender about 35 minutes. This makes an excellent accompaniment for roast pork or chops, ham, mixed grills, pork and beans, wieners or sausages.

Note: An additional two tablespoons of brown sugar may be substituted for the molasses.

Use apples in baking.

APPLE BRAN MUFFINS

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
¼ cup sugar
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup cooking bran
1 egg
⅔ cup milk
1 cup chopped, unpeeled apple
3 tablespoons melted shortening
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon

Combine flour, sugar, baking powder and salt then sift. Add bran and mix thoroughly. Beat egg, add milk, apple and melted shortening. Make a depression in dry ingredients and pour in egg mixture. Stir only enough to moisten dry ingredients. Spoon quickly into well greased muffin tins, ⅔ full. Mix remaining sugar with cinnamon and sprinkle over muffins. Make in a hot oven 4,00° F., 20 to 25 minutes. Yield: 10 to 12 muffins.

Announce Fishing Contest Prize Winners

11 ALBERTANS TO SHARE $75 FOR ANGLING

By Slim Layley

Our fishing contest has once again proved that northern Alberta can produce fishing comparable with any well-settled district in the North American Continent. The fish management policy which was put into effect by the Game Branch of the Department of Lands and Forests several years ago, has shown results this year that must surely have exceeded the wildest dreams of the men responsible. Norman Willmore and his "first lieutenant" Curt Smith, and the crew of biologists working under them most assuredly deserve full credit for a fine job of work.

This year, as a direct result of expert management, heavily fished lakes within 60 miles of Edmonton have produced sport fishing comparable with, and in some cases better than, many of the much pubilized "wilderness" lakes in other provinces, and certainly betthan any other lakes within an hour's drive of any other major inland city on this continent. So far our Travel and Tourist agencies do not seem to have realized this fact, but some day they might, and then Alberta will be put in its rightful place on the Fishing Map of Canada.

Unfortunately many of the splendid fish caught were not weighed and recorded so we could not enter them in the competition. Some very fine trout were caught but so few entered that it was decided to share the trout prize money between those who entered fish in the other classes.

Prizes total $75. Fifty dollars of this is contributed by Sun Publishing Co. Ltd. and the balance by the Edmonton Fish and Game association. Because there were no entries in the Lake Trout class and only one entry each in the Rainbow Trout and Dolly Varden Trout classes, we have added a third prize to the Pike, Pickerel and Perch classes. To make everything come out even we have to add 50 cents to the $75 previous announced.

First prize winners will receive $10, second place winners, $5.00, and third spot winners, $3.50.

Here are the winners, listed in order of one, two, three:

PIKE

Bob Hedly, Edmonton, 23 lb. 2 oz. from Lac la Biche. Dr. Husel, Edmonton, 21 lb. 4 oz., 2" Baptiste Lake. Mrs. V. Sikosa, Edmonton, 13 lbs. from Buck Lake.

Dr. Husel took another splendid pike weighing 16 lbs. 3 oz. from Baptiste, but, as with other competitions, only one prize to one angler in each class so third prize goes to the little lady. (We know the gallant doctor won't kick!)

PICKEREL

10 lb. D. H. Wine, Valleyview, from Little Smokey River. 9 lbs. 7 oz., Mr. Coates, Onoway, Pembina River. 8 lb. 7 oz., Mrs. Sereda, Jasper Place, Baptiste Lake.

Don't say I didn't tell you to try the rivers for the really big pickerel.

PERCH

1 lb. 9oz., Dr. Horner, Barrhead, from Baptiste Lake. 1 lb 2 oz., Pete Zukinsky, Willingdon, from White fish Lake, 14 oz., Bud, Jasper Place, from Mann Lake.

RAINBOW TROUT

6 lb. 8 oz., John Wood, Edmonton, from Lake Chechako.

DOLLY VARDEN TROUT

3 lbs. 12 oz., Walter Kuch, Edmonton, from Hinton

Red And White Sale Feature Big Bargain In Paper Products

A record promotion of paper products in Western Canada has been announced by E. S. Cooper, president of Western Grocers Limited through Michael Hamar Ltd. of Lac la Biche.

Red & White Stores are taking an active part in the promotion, which was made possible by the largest purchase of paper products in Canada. All products, which include facial tissue, table napkins, paper towels, wax paper and toilet tissue, were manufactured in the New Westminster plant of Westminster Paper Company.

Altogether 40 carloads of products with a retail value of $200,000.00 were shipped to over 800 stores serviced by Western Grocers Limited. If stretched end to end, the products would cover 174,000 miles, or approximately seven times around the world.

Mass displays on the theme "Come to our Paper Party" are being featured.

"This large purchase and resulting sale is our answer to those who talk of depression and unemployment," Mr. Cooper said. "A purchase like this gives jobs to thousands of people from store personnel to mill-workers, not to forget those who make the containers, run the railways and everyone else who helps the product emerge from a tree to the shopper's basket."

Mr. Cooper said that only the buying power of a central agency purchasing for hundreds of retail outlets makes the sale possible. "The housewife is the winner because we are able to hold prices even when costs are rising."

The sale at the Red & White started Thursday, Nov. 3 and continues until Saturday, Nov. 5.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE TOLD:

Seat Distribution Now Favors Rural Voters

The Edmonton Chamber of Commerce stated that the democratic principle of equality of representation by population should be implemented in Alberta and that one rural vote should be equal to one vote in the city.

The Chamber told the special committee studying electoral boundaries there are serious limitations in the present electoral boundaries and it takes 2.6 citizens behind each urban member of the legislature to carry the same weight in resolving legislative matters as it would be for one citizen behind each rural representative.

In these times when far reaching proposals are being made in the legislature, the chamber said, there should be a fair share of representatives who are more intimately associated with the problems of the highly urbanized and highly industrialized areas of the province.

Although problems of distance and communication may have justified a greater number of rural representatives, the chamber maintained that this disadvantage has been alleviated with better roads and mail service and with the increased use of cars, telephones, newspapers and more recently, television.

PC VIEWS

A spokesman for the Alberta Progressive Conservative party, Sidney Wood, also told the committee headed by Fred Colborne of Calgary that the distribution of seats in the legislature favors the rural voter. Mr. Wood said the present disproportion is an injustice to the urban voter and is not justified in the interests of the rural voter. He said any redistribution plan should not be a piecemeal affair, concerned only with the most glaring discrepancies.

Those who can't control their tongues operate at a disadvantage in society; they can't compete with the quiet schemers.

Beautiful View, Large Grounds Add To Comforts Of Residents

Pleasant Valley Lodge is situated in the town of Athabasca and serves the town and communities surrounding. The lodge is built in the centre of the municipal district of Meanook, a name which means "Pleasant Valley" in the Cree language.

The name for the Lodge was chosen for sentimental reasons as the County Office, recently moved to Athabasca, had previously been situated in Meanook. The Lodge was built by the Province of Alberta, the County of Athabasca and the town. Board members are; Mr. Frank Crawford who represents L.I.D. 122, and Mr. A. Aloisio, MLA, Mr. Ed Loxon, chairman of the County who represents the County. Mrs. Elizabeth Piquette represents LID 102, while the representative for the town of Athabasca is also secretary treasurer, Dr. J. M. Brown.

The site, one of four submitted, was chosen for the beautiful view it affords of the town and, the river valleys and hills around. It was also chosen for the good television reception. Later TV will be cabled in from a single antenna. It is a manufactured site for the specific purpose. It is a levelled and filled in hillside ravine. It contains five acres which allows for expansion of accommodation as the need arises. There is ample room for bungalow buildings, garden plots, and landscaping.

Pleasant Valley Lodge is one of many built by the province with the exception of the library which privilege will be afforded the service organizations and private citizens of the town and district.

It has been the hope of the town of Athabasca to have a guest home of this type for some time but it was only last May that the town got togather with the Province and the County and formed a board and planning commenced in earnest. It is the rule of these Lodges that each guest must personally make his or her application and by their own wishes be admitted. By the same token the Board expects notice of departure. The board meets once a month, on the last Friday of the month. Admissions are on the first of the following month. There are now nine guests residing there, with 8 interviews pending.

DOWN TO BRASS TACKS

A story floating around has a Japanese war prisoner relating the following story about American jungle fighting ability.

He was asked: "Who are the best jungle fighters?" He answered: "Why, the Japanese."

Then he was asked: "Who are the next best?" He answered: "Probably, the Australians."

"Who are the next?" he was asked. The fellow thought for a moment and then said: "Well, maybe the English."

Then he was asked: "What about the Americans?" The Japanese answered: "Americans no fight in jungle. First remove jungle and then fight."

The dining and sitting rooms are brightly lit by the use of large windows along one side.

Whether You Be Six Or Sixty, Remember To Always Act Your Age

There is a very fine saying of Voltaire's to the effect that every age of life has its own peculiar mental character, and that a man will feel completely unhappy if his mind is not in accordance with his years.

It is true that if we do not wish to feel the weight of our years we must look forward instead of backward. It is silly to try to continue acting as we did five years ago. All living implies a growth, then a peak, and then a decline. The change from one stage to another makes certain types of behaviour impossible or inadvisable if life is to be maintained. Every period of life has its own emotional experiences. There are times of depression, just as there are times of elation, which it were foolishness to dwell upon.

The hardest part of aging is adaptation, we are told; adaptation to the changes in our individual situations and to the expectations of society.

To keep step with the progress of the years and to accept each phase of life as it comes is to live in harmony with nature. The great scientists, historians and philosophers agree that life on earth has always been and is one continuous, never-ceasing, process of readjustment.

What are the distinguishing attributes of various age groups? Youth is marked by resiliency, strength and mobility. Maturity shows balance, precision and achievement. The good qualities of old age are thoroughness, steadiness, dependability and wisdom.

One thing remains irrevocably fixed: our allotment of time at 65 is just what it was at 15—twenty-four hours a day. It behooves us to use every twenty-four hours in accord with the wisdom we have picked up along the way.

We are in favor of every male animal serving his time in the military services, even though physical disability limits his role in the service.

GOVERNMENT PLANNERS HAVE THOUGHT OF EVERYTHING

Pleasant Valley Lodge Has Both Single And Double Bed Rooms

At an approximate cost of $170,000 each, with another $30,000 for fixtures and furnishings, there are 31 rest homes built in Alberta this year. Each home accommodates 50 guests. There are an equal number of single and double rooms with a dresser and chair for each bed. Each room has toilet and hand basin and a closet for each occupant.

The well equipped spacious kitchen is large and light. Stoves are jet black with chrome, double ovened. The walk in cooler is ample and has freezing compartment with side service for smaller items. A staunch and substantial meat block occupies a corner. Sinks are chrome and there are two, one for vegetable washing, etc. There is a garburator attachment. Cupboard space is well built as is the serving counter and work table.

There is a conveyor type toaster with eight trays, toasting 16 slices of bread at one time. It runs on an endless chain. The huge mix-master, potato peeler are there for efficiency.

The large dining room has tables and chairs seating four. The tables are set at an angle for ease of movement. The lounge adjoins the dining room. One wall is almost all glass. A large and attractive fireplace occupies and end wall.

Manning Elected To Legislature Back In 1935

Hon E. C. Manning was first appointed to the Alberta Executive Council in 1935, in the first Social Credit Administration. In 1943, upon the death of Premier Aberhart he was selected party leader and provincial leader by his colleagues.

The cabinet of the province is the governing body of the province between sessions of the legislature and its members are appointed by the premier from amongst the elected members of his party in the legislature.

Upon being appointed, each new cabinet minister is sworn into office by the Lieutenant-Governor on behalf of Her Majesty. The cabinet members each have under his supervision one or more departments of the government. He is directly responsibile to the executive council and the premier for the administration of his department or departments.

There Are 31 Homes Taking Part In The Opening Ceremonies

Foundations which will be joining in the province-wide home opening ceremonies are:

Forty Mile Foundation, Bow Island; Warner County Foundation, Raymond; Chinook Foundation, Cardston; Pincher - Crow's Nest Foundation, Pincher Creek; Willow Creek Foundation, Fort Macleod; Green Acres Foundation, Lethbridge; Cypress View Foundation, Medicine Hat; Newell Foundation, Brooks; Foothills Foundation, High River; Drumheller District Foundation, Drumheller; Kneehill Foundation, Three Hills; Mountview Foundation, Olds; Rocky Mountain Foundation, Rocky Mountain House;

Parkland Foundation, Innisfail; Lacombe Foundation, Lacombe; County of Stettler Foundation, Stettler; M.D. of Camrose Foundation, Camrose; Rimoka Foundation, Ponoka; Wetaskiwin - Peace Hills Foundation, Wetaskiwin; Beaver Foundation, Viking; Vermilion River Foundation, Vermilion; Meridian Foundation, Stony Plain; Evergreens Foundation, Edson; Lac Ste. Anne Foundation, Mayerthorpe; Westlock Foundation, Westlock; M.D. of St. Paul Foundation, St. Paul; Bonnyville District Foundation, Bonnyville; Athabasca County Foundation, Athabasca; Heart River Foundation, High Prairie; North Peace Foundation, Berwyn; Grande Spirit Foundation, Spirit River.

No Bath Tubs To Insure Safety Of Residents

Every room has a sink and toilet, but no bathtub or shower. There is a community tub and shower in each wing.

According to welfare department officials, long and careful thought went into the planning of bathing facilities. Elderly persons often meet with accidents in bathtubs, so it was decided to limit them to one per wing. In this way, the matron can keep track of her charges.

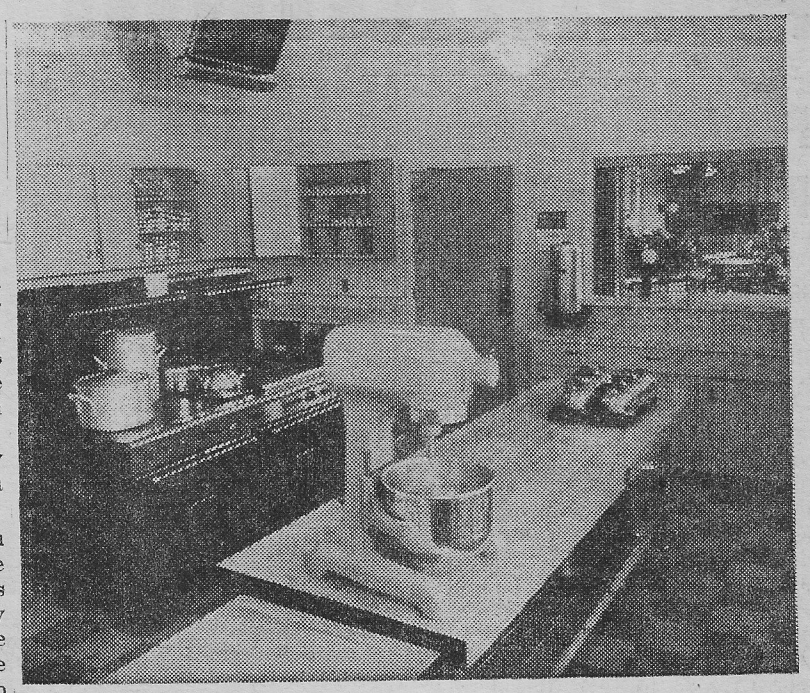
Showers were built with plenty of space, to permit the use of a chair or wheelchair.

In contrast to the ultra-modern look of all the other furnishings are the old-fashioned, high bathtubs with rolled sides. Officials say they were chosen because they're more convenient. The rolled sides give the old people something to grip when getting in or out. They're also easier to approach from either direction because they stand out from the wall on four feet, rather than being "built in" like modern tubs.

The province has spared no expense in furnishing the homes. The furniture bill for the 31 homes about to be completed came to $520,000. Draperies cost around $40,000.

Welfare Minister R. D. Jorgenson, who is supervising the program, says he wishes he had furniture in his home comparable to that which has gone into the old folks' lodges.

A sit-down strike just makes it official so far as some workers are concerned.



A well equipped kitchen containing the latest automatic appliances adjoins the dining room.

LIFE, A FINE SHOW

Youth is a heap of beginnings; age a handful of achievements; but age gives us no time to dote or dream. Life is still a grand adventure, a fine show. The trick is to look at it and play in it at the same time.

Provincial Government To Make Presentation To Board Chairman

At the close of the radio broadcast, Premier E. C. Manning will ask his representative in the constituency, Antonio Aloisio, MLA, to present a 17 by 22 inch attractively framed illuminated scroll to the chairman of the Foundation Board. The scroll will read:

"Be it known that on April 11th, 1960 by Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council a Body Corporate was established with powers and duties set forth in its Charter to be henceforth known by the style and title of the Meridian Foundation.

Be it further known that title to this property built by the Peoples of Alberta as a Residence for the Senior Citizens of this Area has been vested in the name of the said Foundation the Directors of which became the Guardians and the Trustees of the property."

The scroll is signed by J. Percy Page, Lieutenant Governor; Hon. E. C. Manning, Premier of Alberta and Hon. R. D. orgenson, Minister of Public Welfare.

Staff And Resdients Enjoy Conveniences Of Foundation

There is a slight difference in personnel designation with the Pleasant Valley Lodge to others in the province in that this Lodge prefers a mangement department.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank George are the managers, Mrs. George is Matron and Mr. George looks after things in general. Mrs. Spratt doubles as assistant matron and relief cook. She is well known to Athabascans having been matron of the Anglican Girls Hostel there for several years. Mrs. Esther Russell is cook and there are two maids to round out the staff to make this lodge run smoothly and efficiently. Mr. George is a retired farmer. There are at present nine guests enjoying their stay.

The first five guests arrived on the first of August and they are:

Mr. William Kruger of Athabasca, Mrs. Lexy Russel, a retired nurse, from Calling Lake. Mr. Carl Kyselcia who is 70 and a retired farmer, and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mutch, long time residents of Athabasca who are both 90 years young.

For the past 45 years they have lived in Athabasca and given service both in business and comunity life. Mr. Mutch is a retired baker and his wife has given service in the nursing field. Mr. Mutch is Scottish and Mrs. Mutch is an Austrillian. One interesting fact well remembered by town's people is that during the severe flu epedemic of 1919, Mr. and Mrs. Mutch established an emergency nursing home and gave of their time and talents to the good work of nursing the stricken back to health.

"SUFFICIENT UNTO THE DAY"

Lord Chesterfield cautioned his son in words like these: "Wear your learning, like your watch, in a private pocket, and do not pull it out to show you have it. If you are asked what o'clock it is, tell it; but do not proclaim it hourly and unasked." Don't brag about what you did when you were young, or boast about what you would do today if you were not old.

NOT A PRAYER

St. Peter challenged the Devil to a game of baseball, claiming that all the great baseball players were up in Heaven. "You won't stand a chance."

"And why not?" asked St. Peter.

"Well," replied the Devil, "we have all the umpires down here."

FIRST RESIDENT ENTERED VALLEY LOGDE AUG. 1

The Pleasant Valley Lodge at Athabasca has been in operation since the August 1, when the first guests were welcomed It is the policy of this Lodge to admit at the first of the month with the applications being accepted the previous month. The fee is $60 per resident and it would appear that screening of applications is rather strict. Certainly no worthy applicant is refused but it must be understood that no ailing person can be accepted. Those who can and are willing to live in a community manner are welcome.

Applications should be made to secretary Dr. J. M. Brown, Athabasca.

Over 90 percent of the 2,4-D and MCPA used in Alberta last year was of the ester types. Their action is quicker and the cost is lower than other types of these chemicals.

MRS. FRANK GEORGE, the popular Matron of the Pleasant Valley Lodge has been a resident of the Athabasca area for the past fourteen years. For the past four years she has taught typing and bookkeeping in the town schools, a job she is well fitted for, being a graduate of the Edmonton Commercial School. Mrs. George, the former Lola Mitchell played basketball with world famous Edmonton Grads. Her father is Alderman Mitchell of Edmonton.

THE HAND OF EXPERIENCE

The vital secret of happiness in old age is to keep moving. And, who knows, some work of noble note may yet be done. Do not forget the hands of the aged: they have touched much of life and have become sensitive and sympathetic.

A double room is furnished with mahogany dresser and chairs and decorated in rich pastel shades. A double window overlooks the grounds.

CLINCHER

The acme of understatement was reached at a dinner party at which a Southern gentleman was fighting the Civil War all over again. Finally he concluded his arguments with this undebatable point:

"If the Confederacy, Suh, had had the atomic bomb, we would have won the war between the States."

Plans First Announced 1958

ROVING REPORTER

BY MARTHA FRASER

I have seen several of these luxurious, beautiful guest homes built by the Government of Alberta. I have had the pleasure of going through them from bottom to top. From basements which contain cooler equipped vegetable rooms, locker rooms with 50 individual lockers (each with lock and key) and space for suit case storage above, trunk rooms, ultra modern boiler rooms, with boilers so installed that they are automatically operated and require no janitor service, to the upper or ground floors with single and double rooms to accommodate 50 guests and furnished with closets for each, and toilet and sink facilities, to the beautifully appointed lounge rooms, libraries, sitting rooms, telephone booths, visitors lounge, game rooms, roomy dining rooms, and out of this world kitchens. Not to mention laundry rooms.

I have seen these and marvelled and felt proud that at long last our governments are really doing something for the people who have helped build this vast and splendid west of ours.

The furnishings are fine. I have felt like lingering in the spacious game rooms to either play a game of checkers or "do" a jig-saw puzzle, or sinking down in one of the many comfortable chairs and relaxing. I've been happy to see hand railings installed along the corridor walls to aid the halting step.

I've spoken to the matrons and am pleased that each one seems so well fitted for her position. I've even sampled the food and seen stacks and stacks of fine linens and beddings.

I've talked to chairmen, I've spoken to secretaries, and board members and in every case have I become conscious of how very conscious they are of making these lodges really cheerful, homelike places.

BUT do you know what I like best about these guest homes? Well, it's the guest themselves! And I've talked to them from 90 years young down to below 70 and in every case have found some intangible power or feeling or thought which sets them well apart. Each seems so happy, so content, so relaxed, so comfortable. I only regret that time has not permitted me to visit as I should like for I do feel that there is so much to learn just by listening to their reminisences.

I say Hi Ho, for our Senior citizens, they are well deserving of the best our country can give them.

Homes For The Aged Design Caters To Needs Of "Elderly" In Every Detail

Plans for the Homes for the Aged were first announced in 1958, as part of the Alberta Government's Five Year Plan. Original design was submitted in an open contest. Final plans were formulated by the Alberta department of public works.

There are plans for 50 such homes throughout Alberta, so no resident need be distant from his lifelong residential area and circle of friends.

The homes are of uniform u-shaped bungalo design. Each has a floor area of 14,000 square feet and houses not more than 50 residents.

Each home has eighteen bedrooms. All are equipped with toilet and water facilities.

Each home has five lounges dispersed about the building, and a large well appointed dining room with tables for four.

Each home has a recreation room, and is equipped with a small laundry for washing of personal possessions.

A special suite is provided for the matron who directs each home.

Each home is located in one of fifty administrative areas based on population, each area having approximately 500 persons 70 years of age and over.

Land for each Senior Citizen Lodge, of five acres in extent, is contributel by the municipality, and utilities are required to be extended by the municipality to the edge of the Home property.

The government pays all costs of complete construction and furnishing, up to and including changes of bed linen, of each home.

Ownership of completed homes is vested in the Foundation organized and incorporated to administer the home.

Directors of the Foundations may be members of councils of participating municipalities, members of social, fraternal, religious, or charitable organizations.

Boards of Directors must set up Boards of Management on which no more and no less than two members of the Board of Directors may sit. Balance of the Board of Management is to be composed of non-elected persons.

By Order in Council, maintenance rate for a person occupying a bedroom for double occupancy is $60 per month irrespective of income. Residents for single bedroom is $65 per month.

A person whose only income is derived from the Old Age Pension and Supplementary Allowance shall not be charged more than $60 per month.

Persons who have not established residence in Alberta for welfare purposes may be charged rates of $65 and $70 per month.

Applicants are not subject to a means test. However, residence is restricted to elderly persons who are not suffering from any chronic disease which incapacitates them.

Average cost of each home is $200,000 fully equipped.

Edmonton and Calgary will combine lodge type buildings with rental units in equal proportions, on each site. Lodge type buildings will be the same as those constructed throughout the province. Rental units will be designed for elderly couples with a proportion of single units for elderly women. The units will be equipped with stove and refrigerator and the residents will supply their own furnishings.

Edmonton will have eight different sites with the combined units for 100 persons on five acre plots.

Calgary will have three projects for 300 persons each on two 15 acre sites and 200 persons on a ten acre site.

IDA KARLSSON, 84, right, of Katrineholm, Sweden, jumped off a dock and swam to the resue of Hedvig Alma, 81, when Hedvig was thrown into the water after the boat she was riding in capsized. The two ladies are now close friends. We imagine many close friendships will grow from associations with other guests in the Pleasant Valley Lodge but we hope no one is ever required to prove their friendship in this drastic manner.

The Work Of Many Hands

The department of public welfare appreciates the help received from many hands in the planning and developing of the program to provide Homes for the Aged.

Municipalities have provided choice sites for the buildings. The contractors have supplied materials and workmanship of high standard. Members of the Foundation and service clubs have been helpful in every possible way.

It has only been through these combined efforts that the initial group of homes have so quickly reached the time of their official opening.

The man who, in his business, resorts to tricks and doubtful practices, need not wonder why his son grows up to be a downright crook.

Guests Enjoy Comforts Of Home

Interesting Answers Come From Questionnaire Given To Guests

By Mrs. I. M. George

The guests in the Pleasant Valley Lodge enjoy all the comforts of home. Actually there are few people these days who do have all the conveniences of the new Homes for the Aged.

The Guests are: Mrs. Lexy Russell, Messrs. Wm. Kruger, Carl Kiselycia, Wm. Gorman, Sergai Dengluk, Charles Sandelin, Donat Pelletier, Warren Richards, Calvin Carter, Percy Wilson, Art Cullen, Frank George, Mr. and Mrs. James Mutch, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wolfe.

A questionnaire circulated among the guests here brought out this information of interest:

Where born? Bathhurst, Australia; two from Scotland, one each from Ireland, Finland, Germany, Austria, 3 from the United States, and the balance in Canada, PEI and Quebec.

Education: Mostly the school of life-some in the old country, some night school, and business college, various in country schools in Canada.

Work: Alaska Highway, Lumbering, Farming, Odd Jobs, Carpentry, Piano case construction, steam and electrical engineering, Tailoring, Cooking for Railway Construction Camps in the three prairie provinces, Homesteading, Trapping, Baking, Nursing, in mental institutes and Restaurant Keeping and serving in the forces during war-time.

Memories (quotes): "In Athabasca there were no roads, no street lights, no foot walks, but there was mud up to your neck. Privately owned gas wells served individual houses. First bakery opened in 1920 (by the Mutch's)" "I remember some strange people, and many pleasant ones." "Early life in Alberta was similar to early life in Wisconsin. I remember the sunny side of my early life, and forget the rest." "In the depression a family of 6 lived on relief of $5.00 a month. Bill Gorman ran the ferry across the Athabasca River. 'Jimmie' and Mrs. Mutch opened a bakery and restaurant, and Frank Falconer, a hardware." "In 1913 Athabasca was booming with lots of new-comers." "Walking behind an ox team 33 miles facing a strong wind at 52 degrees below zero. Being lost on the prairie in storms, sometimes tramping all night to find home, and numbers frozen to death in Chinook storms." "Hard work - homesteading." "Freighting via teams overland from Edmonton. Watching the River Boats load of unload for trips up or down." "Boat - building at Athabasca." "When in USA drafted into the army" "Travelling 60 miles by team to the Homestead."

I like life in this Lodge because: (Quotes again.)

"It is a lovely, quiet, well conducted home for old people who want others of their own age for company, ones who understand what it took to settle up Alberta to its present time. May the younger generation keep up the good work. People are as then, good, bad, but mostly honest people." (two) "It's swell" " Quiet and restful for me (a war veteran) "it is quiet and tidy and very comfortable" "I'm happy here," "We can make it good here" "It is the nearest thing to heaven that I ever expect to see or enjoy at the reasonable price we are charged." It is comfortable in every way." "the people have all very pleasant, serve very nice meals - a pleasant place to live in comfort." "Just because I like it", "I am paying my way, and it seems more like a club than a ' home for the aged'." "It is clean and every person is so kind and pleasant" "I am able to take things easy and enjoy life."

How do we spend our time? Keep our rooms tidy, read, rest, do our personal laundry, play games, walk round outside or go down town; enjoy our wonderful view of the Athabasca river and bridge, and the part of the town below us (we are on a hill). We also see the houses away across on the ':East Hill". The lights are very pretty at night.

PREMIER E. C. MANNING will be the principal speaker in a complicated radio broadcast that will mark the beginning of the official opening ceremonies of 31 Homes for the Aged in the province of Alberta. At the close of his address he will have his official representatives take over the program from their respective districts.

Staff Of Foundation Consists Young, Old

The staff of this Lodge consists of Matron, Assistant Matron and Cook (she fills in for both - especially on the days the other member of the staff is absent) Cook, and two Maids. We have caretaking and special services done by the Matron's husband, who gives an average of four hours service a day. He gets the mail, taking anyone to town with him if they wish, can cut hair, shave a man, and is generally able to fix things that go wrong.

The personnel also have memories, farming days, homesteading days, homemaking, Anglican Hostel work, teaching, stenography, and one was an original grad of basketball fame. I mean the grads won fame. One said- "My family were among the first to settle in Burnaby lake about 1890. My father drove into Vancouver every day with horse drawn wagon, taking fruit in season, a distance of about 12 miles. The fruit was sold from warehouses on Water street, to local buyers of the city. Later we moved to the Fraser Valley."

The maids are fresh out of school, attractive, and learning to do their work well. They like working in this home because it is a pleasant environment, and the equipment is up-to-date.

The older members of the staff chose this work as it is the type of work in which they are interested - serving others.

Athabasca Mayor D. B. Hunter Pleased With Home For Aged

Mayor D. B. Hunter of Athabasca expressed his pleasure of having a lodge for senior citizens built in his town. Said the mayor, "I am very happy personally and I know the whole council was very pleased to seek a development that would enable our elderly citizens to live in comfort amid congenial surroundings. That is very important for the older people. We are very pleased that the district was chosen for one of these rest homes. "In speaking of the location "naturally we feel that our location overlooking the junction of the Athabasca and Tawatinaw valleys is very beautiful." He spoke of the people of Athabasca making every effort to make each guest, no matter from which district feel at home. Athabasca is one of the oldest known stopping or gathering points in north-western Canada. It was a gathering place for the Cree Indians who travelled overland, southward to the Saskatchewan river from this point.

The name Athabasca originaed right here, meaning, "place in the reeds." For many years after the white man settled here it was both a distributing point and a control point for much of the northwest.

Competition For Design Of Building

In an endeavor to secure the best possible designs for the Homes for the Aged, Alberta residents were invited to submit sketch plans for cash awards totalling $10,000.

Over 400 plans were submitted and judged by Dr. Elmer Roper, now mayor of Edmonton; M. D. Muttart, president of Muttart Building Enterprizes and Ron Clarke, a practising architect.

Lions keep their great strength even during captivity.

Does Anyone Care?

Rev. Ramsay Stuart
Anglican Rector, Bon Accord, Gibbons, Redwater

From my desk I can see my two-year-old daughter developing an idea. By moving the coffee table over to the television set and climbing on to it, she can reach the "Windex" spray bottle which her mother left there three minutes ago.

Now I'm not interested in where she got her idea. Knowing my small daughter, I'm more interested in preventing her from spraying me with window cleaning fluid—the development of the idea! Excuse me . . . Now we are both happy — I have the bottle, and she is engrossed in trying to extract pennies from her brother's 'piggy-bank.'

The best way to test an idea like that of the Boys' Ranch is to share it with others. When I realized that so many agreed with the proposal, I decided to develop it. We began to work and to think, and discuss with others, all the things that needed to be done in order to build a home of the proper kind — for boys who need home life and also community life where they could find fellowship together with other boys.

It was then that doubts began to be voiced by some of those who had originally been so enthusiastic. Surely, Oakhill is an excellent idea. Certainly, it would fulfill a need. It's all very good and well meaning, but . . . Where's the money coming from . . .? Isn't the scheme a little too ambitious . . .? In short, maybe the parson has bitten off more than he can chew!

If Oakhill was going to train boys who would become men of character and confidence, and faith — it would have to be established by men with similar qualities. Men who would agree with what Shakespeare wrote:

"Our doubts are traitors,
And make us lose the good we oft might win
By fearing to attempt."

One has to search for such men, and I found many within the bounds of the Anglican Church, but I have never felt that Oakhill should be an exclusive Anglican organization, set up only for Anglican boys. I shared by ideas with men who were interested simply from their concern for boys and their desire to see them grow up into full and rich and meaningful manhood.

Today the Oakhill board of directors consists of a group of men who belong to various denominations. We took the initial step of forming an incorporated, non-profit making organization under the Friendly Societies Act. We have put several committees to work, prior to starting a provincial wide fund raising effort. We will need public spirited men and women to help us gain financial support from the rural areas of our province. I will be very glad to hear from anyone who would be prepared to assist us in making Oakhill Boys' Ranch not just an idea — but a reality. I believe it will be done, and that the first resident boys will be attending school at Bon Accord next September.

BE AWARE

If there is one quality more than another that marks maturity, it is the quality of awareness. You will, when you are on the lookout for it, sense the moment when your advice and counsel would be fitting and useful; you will be aware, too, of the times when the weight of your years' experience would be a strain on good relations.

GLORIA WATEMAN of London, England, holds a model of an all-wing airliner design developed by a British aircraft company which could drastically reduce the cost of trans-atlantic air travel. The airliner — the Handley Page HP 117—could carry 300 passengers across the Atlantic for only eleven pounds sterling each, or less than a halfpenny a mile.
